Description:

We are delighted to welcome back who will be speaking about his new book. Astonishingly, there are millions of people in the world today who retain remnants of Jewish traditions after as long as 500 years, but are often completely unaware of their Jewish origins. They are descendants of those Jews who were forced to convert to Christianity mostly during the period 1391-1492 in Spain and during the mass forced conversion during 1497 in Portugal. They were known as conversos or New Christians or, perjoratively, marranos. In Hebrew they are known as Anousim (coerced). Their descendants are Bnei Anousim and many of them are now coming forward to reclaim their ancestral heritage. They are motivated by curiosity about their origins and unusual customs passed down through the generations and by a desire to right the wrongs of history when they discover that their ancestors were tortured and died for their beliefs. Video call:

https://plus.google.com/hangouts/_/netanyaaaci.org.il/communitycalend?hceid=Y29tbXVuaXR5Y2

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv Street 28, Netanya

Description:

David Hirsh BSc MA PhD is a Lecturer in Sociology at Goldsmiths College, University of London, and the founder of Engage, a campaign against academic boycotts of Israel. He is a graduate of City University and holds an MA in Philosophy and Social Theory and a PhD from Warwick University. In his youth, David was an activist in the National Organization of Labour Students, but he has recently played a leading role in exposing contemporary anti-Semitism in the UK, which often masquerades behind commonplace criticism of Israel. His particular interest is in challenging "the ways that people on the left, people who consider themselves to be liberals and anti-racists, trade unionists, are thinking about Zionism and Jews." He has written that he was shocked when academic colleagues in his own union not only voted to boycott Israel but failed to understand why it was wrong to single out Israeli Jews and no-one else for exclusion. He has dedicated his website Engage to encouraging and educating Jews and non-Jews to recognize and oppose anti-Semitism, whenever and wherever it appears. David will give an overview of anti-Semitism in British Institutions and will talk about his new book Contemporary Left Anti-Semitism. Members pre-paid NIS 40 Non-members NIS 50 E:8/5/17

Netanya AACI Literary Workshop "The First Two Hebrew Novels" with Dr. Michal Fram Cohen

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv Street 28, Netanya

Description:

Michal Fram Cohen holds a Ph.D. in Hebrew Literature from Bar-Ilan University. She currently works as a Hebrew translator/interpreter and has a special interest in early Hebrew writers. Michal was the recipient of a grant from the Center for the Study of Women in Judaism at Bar-Ilan University. Her articles were published in Hebrew Higher Education and The Independent Review. Before returning to Israel, Michal taught Hebrew at the University of Maryland and Georgetown University. She will be presenting two novels: Ahavat Zion by Avraham Mapu (Vilna, 1853), and Ha-Avot Veha-Banim by Shalom Yaakov Abramovitz (Odessa, 1868). These novels represent opposite trends in the creation of Modern Hebrew Literature: Romanticism and Realism. Ahavat Zion [Love of Zion] takes place in the Kingdom of Judea in the time of the First Temple and portrays the struggle against the influence of Paganism. Ha-Avot Veha-Banim [Fathers and Sons] takes place in a contemporary Russian Shtetl and portrays the generation gaps between traditional parents and their modern children. Mapu and Abramovitz (known by his pen name Mendele Mokher Sefarim) used different methods in the revival of Hebrew in their novels. The lecture will contrast the different literary ideologies of Mapu the Romanticist and Mendele the Realist, as reflected in the plot, the characterization, and the language of each novel. Excerpts in English from both novels will be provided ahead of the lecture. Members pre-paid NIS 35 Members at Door NIS 40 Non-members NIS 45 E: 11/9/17

7:30pm Netanya AACI Debate with Norman Bailey and Raymond Canon

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv Street 28, Netanya

Description:

Norman Bailey & Raymond Canon will lead our second annual debate entitled "This House believes that freedom of speech in Israel is currently under threat". Following the success of last year's inaugural public debate, we are delighted to announce this year's event which will take place at Netanya AACI. Debate is an essential tool for maintaining democracy and an open society. Through debate Netanya AACI claims to promote tolerance for divergent points in a forum where controversial issues will be examined. Proposing the motion: Raymond Cannon, a retired UK lawyer specializing in EU and international business law. Opposing the motion: Dr. Norman Bailey, currently a senior researcher at the Centre for National Security Studies at Haifa University. Both gentlemen are popular Netanya AACI speakers and this promises to be a most interesting and lively evening. The new streamlined format will have no supporting speakers but will include a coffee break, enabling the audience to formulate their contributions before the final vote. Dr Michael Bliss will chair the event. Where: Shmuel HaNatziv Street 28, Netanya

Description:

Dona Gracia HaNasi was the richest woman of her time. She financed --and fought with - Kings, Popes and Rabbis - and her nemesis, sister Reyna. Gracia organized an escape route for escaping Maranos, financed Yeshivas and bible scholars and owned the leasehold to Tiberius, but her adventures were perilous. Benefiting from the works of some Jews, including the astronomical discoveries of Abraham Zacuto, she battled others, including Benvenida Abravanel, daughter-in-law of the famed Isaac Abravanel. 9am Netanya AACI Tiyul "Inside Tel Aviv"

Description:

We start our day at the Aden Jewish Heritage Museum, Neve Tzekek. The outside of the building resembles a synagogue, which indeed it was. The ground floor is now a museum dedicated to the Jewish community of the port city of Aden in Yemen. Our guide, a descendant of Adeni Jews, will explain the uniqueness of the community, its history, and its connection to the Neve Tzedek neighborhood. Our next stop is the Jabotinsky Museum, one of the most distinctive historical museums in Tel Aviv. With the inauguration of the exhibit on The Af Al Pi Illegal Immigration to Eretz Israel, the museum embarked upon a course of harnessing state-of-the-art technology to make history come alive. Static presentations of documents and photographs have been replaced by short, dynamic multi-media presentations with vibrant special effects to enhance the total experience. We shall see two films: Jabotinsky's life and mission and the story of the illegal immigration to Palestine by ship. The heart of Tel Aviv is the renovated Saron complex, originally a German Templar Colony. On our guided tour of the Saron Visitors Center we shall visit the secret underground tunnels that connect the Templar wineries where wine barrels were transported underground in a naturally cool environment. Some of the large underground chambers were used by the Hagana for airplane assembly, which only increases the mystique of the area. There will be free time to enjoy the landscaped gardens, cafes, shops and the Saron Culinary Market. There are several Kosher eateries at Saron or bring your own. Exact times and pick up locations TBC nearer the time. E: 14/8/17

9am AACI NetanyaTiyul "Secrets, Spies & Video Tapes"

Where: The Israel Intelligence Heritage & Commemoration Center (IICC)

Description:

Please note this is a repeat programs after our very successful previous trips. Near a cinema multiplex and a non-descript highway junction outside Tel Aviv is the place where Israel's secrets go when they get old. The Israel Intelligence Heritage & Commemoration Center (IICC) is devoted to shedding light on some of the more secretive chapters in Israel's history. Its mission is to honor, remember and preserve information about members of Israel's intelligence agencies, and to commemorate the fallen from all branches of Israeli intelligence. The Center, a non-governmental organization, was created in response to public pressure for more transparency. During our visit we will see two films: The Power of Knowledge, which describes the process by which the intelligence community manages current threats, and an historical documentary film which tells of the IICC's involvement in the rescue of Jewish communities in peril in Yemen, Iraq, Morocco, Ethiopia and other regions. From there we will visit the Terror Exhibition Display which illustrates tangible threats, propaganda, the perpetuation of hate and the intelligence war against terrorism. After our lunch break we shall hear veterans of the intelligence community telling stories of missions in which they were involved. To end our visit we will walk through the Commemoration Maze. Please bring your own sandwiches for lunch. There will be coffee, tea and biscuits throughout the day. Early American Jewish Women Reformers: Their Mission and Legacy:Rebecca Gratz (1781-1869) Lillian Wald (1867-1940) Philadelphiasocialite Rebecca Gratz mingled almost exclusively with non-Jews, whichonly sensitized her to activities of proselytizing Christians. After organizing relief societies for women and children of all faiths, shecreated the model for today's Jewish educational outreach. She alsoinfluenced Christian authors- leaving perhaps an even more profoundimpact on Jewish life. Elected to the Hall of Fame for Great Americans,Lillian Wald was a pre-eminent member of early Jewish women socialactivists (circa 1893) and founder of the public health nursingservice, becoming a role model for Henrietta Szold and many others. 8am Netanya AACI Tiyul to Jerusalem - Lesser known Museums

Description:

We will start our guided tour of the City Hall complex at the Jerusalem Municipality Visitor Center in Safra Square. The tour consists of a visit around the historical municipal building which held the municipal town hall dating back to the British Mandate period and housed the mayors of Jerusalem. The history of these buildings and the plots surrounding the fascinating characters they serviced are a vital component in the annals of the city and the City Hall's origins. Some of the buildings were constructed at the beginning of the century and were renovated and adapted for contemporary, modern use. Walking through Safra Square we will arrive at The Museum of Underground Prisoners which commemorates the activity of the Jewish underground movements; Haganah, Irgun and Lehi, which fought for the Independence of the State of Israel. Discover what their lives were like in prison and hear the amazing stories of Reb Aryeh Levin, who was their Rabbi. Our last stop of the day is to the U. Nahon Museum of Italian Jewish Art. This Museum was set up to collect, preserve and display objects pertaining to Jewish life in Italy from the Renaissance period through to the present time. Through its unique images and artifacts, the Museum's collection recreates the richness of Jewish life in Italy throughout the ages. The outstanding highlight of the Museum is the ancient Italian Synagogue, which is now used by Italian Jews in Jerusalem. Our visit culminates with a Meet the Italian Chef who will give us a mouth-watering presentation on Jewish Italian food. Morning coffee and a light lunch of kosher sandwiches is included in the price. A DEVIL OF A LECTURE! Satan, Lucifer, Mephisto, Beelzebub – the Devil has many names, but one trait – he is pure evil. We'll be making the Devil's acquaintance through music by Mozart, Berlioz, Weber, Paganini, Tartini, Saint-Saëns, Boito and many more. We'll have a devil of a time!
